

The Spring

Threads of Freedom

Stitching identity, memory and meaning

A Free Community Art Project – Get Involved!

Join us to mark 80 years since VE Day with Threads of Freedom, a powerful textile art project led by artist Helen Sill.

We're inviting YOU to contribute towards a large-scale collaborative artwork exploring what freedom means today – through simple hand-stitching.

Want to get involved? Visit thespring.co.uk/takepart,
Drop us an info@thespring.co.uk or call 023 9247 2700

No sewing experience needed

All materials provided

OUR FREEDOM:
THEN & NOW

Threads of Freedom is designed and created by Helen Sill in collaboration with the community of Havant, commissioned by The Spring Arts & Heritage Centre.

Future
Arts
Centres

80
VE DAY

Libraries
Connected

OPEN
EYE
GALLERY

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Funded by
UK Government

Empowering people through arts,
creativity, and culture
thespring.co.uk